

Jenny Horton

CAREER OBJECTIVE

Seeking employment in a position utilizing skills in copywriting, editing, and collaboration with fellow employees and clients in a creative environment

EDUCATION

Wake Forest University School of Law

Juris Doctor Candidate

Winston-Salem, NC

Aug. 2019 – Jan. 2020

Clemson University, Honors College

Bachelor of Arts in English, Literature Emphasis, summa cum laude

Minor in Communication Studies

Cumulative GPA: 3.97/4.00

Clemson, SC

May 2019

Honors: Phi Beta Kappa; Sigma Tau Delta; President's List, Spring 2016 to Spring 2019; Roger B. Rollin English Essay Award 2018 – Special Commendation; Clemson Presidential Scholarship; South Carolina Palmetto Fellows Scholarship

WORK EXPERIENCE

Home Accents Today, Associate Editor – Greensboro, NC

Feb. 2020 – May 2020

- Wrote and reported on industry and market news
- Wrote long-form business features for monthly issues
- Edited press releases for publication online

Cromer Babb Porter & Hicks, LLC, Legal Intern – Columbia, SC

Summer 2019, Dec. 2018,
Summer 2017

- Drafted complaints and conducted research for cases
- Engaged daily with clients and recorded notes during consultations alongside managing partner
- Attended and assisted in preparation for mediations, depositions, and hearings
- Completed indexing of pleadings, motions, orders, and discovery

Clemson University Writing Center, Writing Fellow/Peer Tutor – Clemson, SC

Sept. 2017 – May 2019

- Provided individual instruction to fellow students in composing academic papers
- Fostered an environment that engages students in conversation about language

Clemson University Housing Summer Programs, Conference Aide – Clemson, SC

Summer 2016

- Acted as point of contact between Clemson and summer youth camp sponsors
- Supervised staff of 15 summer counselors and facilitated weekly meetings to set priorities and motivate staff
- Responded to housing concerns during regular 24-hour on-call shifts

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT

Departmental Honors Thesis

Aug. 2017 – May 2019

- Conducted a two-year independent research project on Nella Larsen's Quicksand, entitled, "Minor Agitations: Gender and Refusal in Nella Larsen's Quicksand"
- Successfully defended thesis in order to graduate with General and Departmental Honors

Dixon Fellows, Junior Fellow

Aug. 2015 – May 2019

- Collaborated with select groups of 5-7 Honors students (junior fellows) and professors to study timely topics each semester
- Studied global film, periods of riot and protest and the literature they produced, and J.M. Coetzee's Elizabeth Costello

Study Abroad in Paris and Normandy

May 2018

- Studied literary modernism in the context of World War II and D-Day
- Conducted an independent research project on resistance in Albert Camus's The Plague

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

English Majors Organization (EMO), Volunteer Coordinator

Jan. 2017 – May 2019

- Coordinated EMO's volunteer work with Littlejohn Community Center and other nonprofit organizations
- Organized monthly events to support English majors in their academic endeavors at Clemson and beyond

Honors Ambassadors, Ambassador and Ambassador Selection Committee Member

Jan. 2016 – May 2019

- Facilitated regular Honors College student visits with 5-20 students per visit
- Interacted with prospective students and their families during Honors College recruiting events
- Evaluated applications for the Honors Ambassador Program and interviewed applicants

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Veteran Scholarships Forever (VSF), Blog Author

Littlejohn Community Center, Reading Tutor

CONFERENCE ATTENDANCE

Women's Leadership Conference, Clemson University

Modernism, World Literature, and Totality Symposium, Yale University

Strengths: Proficient in writing, text editing, research, creative thinking, analytical thinking, and team collaboration