PROFILE

My skills lie in my ability to listen, understand the situation and act quickly and smartly. I'm Android and C# developer with lot of knowledge of different programming languages, technologies, frameworks, etc. I understand design principles, patterns, and programming best practices and I give meticulous attention to UX/UI design.

Dedicated, communicative, fun, resourceful, always ready for teamwork and learning from experienced people. Have a strong motivation and desire for learning.

I have Passion for Fly Fishing and Photography. And I'm proud competitor in National Team of Montenegro in Fly Fishing discipline, also a winner of multiple competitions including 1st place on Balkan Championship, and my free time is dedicated to Fly Fishing and self-directed learning.
